

Denounce the criminal acts of Paris!

- 1 - The balance of the terrorist acts against Charlie Hebdo in Paris on 7 January 2015 has caused considerable excitement, not only in France, but all over the world.
- 2 – Four million men and women demonstrated and protested in France alone against the fascist assassination. At the same time these just protests were utilized by the bourgeois governments. During the people's march on Sunday, 11 January, they circulated photos as if they had been at the head of the march of the masses, whereas they were in a small side road, surrounded by security police.
- 3 – Those in power utilize the fascist terrorist acts for restricting the democratic rights and liberties, for the fascistization of the state apparatus and for discriminating against immigrants.
- 4 – The terrorist assassinations committed by fascist Islamists are also nothing new, especially since 11 September 2001. Recently we could see that in Peshawar, Pakistan, where 141 persons, among them 132 children, were killed in a school in last December or in Libya where in February this year 21 foreign workers were beheaded by IS units.
- 5 – This is also an expression of the encroachment of barbarism. It is especially a characteristic symptom of the extreme crisis, of the decay of the capitalist society.
- 6 – It is also reflected in anti-Muslim provocations in Europe as well as in similar acts of terrorism by misguided youth on the basis of religion all over the world. E.g. by Hindu terrorists in India, by Buddhist fanatics in Sri Lanka etc., by Christian terrorists in Europe and the Americas etc.
- 7 – There is a lack of perspective because of the current crisis of capitalism, which is an economic but also a social, moral and cultural crisis and an arising decay of a society which is stinking of death and destruction from all pores. This all leads to the fact that for a considerable number of these youth life seems to be without aim and worth. The hopeless situation of the youth is the reason why they go to the terrorists.
- 8 – Capitalist society can only tear down all of humankind more and more into bloody chaos, into deadly madness and death. Terrorism shows that it does not stop producing a constantly larger number of individuals who are completely hopeless and destroyed and able to commit the worst atrocities; it shapes these terrorists fundamentally according to its own image. If such “monsters” exist, then it is because the capitalist society itself has become “a monster”.
- 9 – Those politically in power do not hesitate to also apply terror themselves, assassination attempts and repressions against the civilian populations or mass murder of the Zionists on the Palestinian people, if it is about defending the interests of this system and its ruling class, the bourgeoisie.

10 – Its end can only be the result of overthrowing this system by the worldwide proletariat, i.e. by the class which by acting in a united way essentially produces the wealth of society and by replacing it by a really human, universal community which is no longer based on profit, competition and exploitation of man by man, but on the destruction of these left-overs of human prehistory. A society which as Marx said, is based on an “association, in which the free development of each is the condition for the free development of all” (Manifesto of the Communist Party, Chapter 2).

Down with all terrorist fascist barbaric acts!

Down with any utilisation of such barbaric acts to limit democratic rights and liberties!

Unconditional legalization of all people without papers, free right to stay!

Stop of all imperialist interventions in foreign countries, withdrawal of troops!

Native population or immigrants – workers, believer or atheist, solidarity! One sole working class!
